Predicts Vast Raids

Chinese Fight Way Into Port Of Foochow

CHUNGKING, May 14.—(INS)—Chinese forces were reported by the Chungking high command today to have fought their way into the strategic port of Foochow, on the southeast coast of China, opposite the Japanese island stronghold of Formosa.

The Jap-held airfield south of Foochow, in Fukien province, had been captured by Chinese troops.

Several columns of Chinese troops were said to have launched the attack on Foochow. The Chinese broke through the Japanese positions northwest of Foochow and entered the city on Friday night, delayed reports said.

Last reports said that street fighting still was in progress in the port city midway between Canton to the southwest and Shanghai to the northeast.

Chinese forces also let loose with strong assaults on other sectors, the high command reporting that Sinchang, some 65 miles southeast of Hangchow, just southwest of Shanghai, had been occupied.

Report Further Damage To Jap Fleet By Raid

Believe Two Jap Ships Sunk, Four Hit By Bombs, In Northern Kuriles

ELEVENTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Aleutians, May 14.—(INS)—The score of the bitter battle of May 11 at the Kataoka naval base on Shimushu island in the northern Kuriles today raised to two enemy ships sunk, direct hits on four others and near misses and possible damage to a transport, totaling the heaviest single day's score on Jap shipping for 11th air force fliers in almost two years.

Surprised Japs

Liberators and Mitchells apparently surprised elements of the Japanese imperial fleet strung out between Kataoka base and the Kashiwabara staging area on Paramushiro and claimed to have sunk a 2,500-ton cargo ship and a small freighter.

Direct hits were scored on an enemy frigate, two medium cargo ships and a freighter, all left burning in the water. Two near misses possibly damaged a 7,000-ton transport.

Small fighter opposition was encountered but enemy anti-aircraft fire was heavy and one Mitchell exploded over the target.

Churchill Will Remain At Helm

Still Much To Be Done In Europe Prime Minister Says In Address

PLEDGES WAR ON JAPS TO FINISH

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, May 14.—(INS)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill's determination to remain at the helm of the British government, at least until the war against Japan is won, was driven home today to the people of Britain.

Churchill, in an address marking the fifth year of his appointment as prime minister, declared that there still was much to be done in Europe and also explained that the defeat of Japan, to which he had pledged Britain's full support, still remained.

The prime minister, declaring that he was determined not to let "totalitarian or police governments" take over control in Germany and the rest of liberated Europe, invited the continued cooperation of the United States government in supervising European affairs.

Not To Be "Put Out To Grass"

For himself and his government, Churchill made known his intention not to be "put out to grass" at this time. The statement ended for the present time speculation on when the prime minister might indicate how much longer he intended to keep intact the national coalition government he had established of

Over 500 Giant U. S. Bombers In Nagoya Attack

Largest Fleet Of Superforts Yet To Hit Japan Make Latest Raid

INCENDIARY BOMBS USED BY THOUSANDS
By GEORGE McWILLIAMS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, May 14.—The largest fleet of Superforts yet to hit the Japanese homeland—over 500 of the giant craft—today pounded the northern sector of Nagoya, Japan's third largest city, into flaming rubble under the weight of 3,500 tons of exploding incendiary bombs.

At the same time, radio Tokyo declared that 900 American carrier-based aircraft blasted airfields and installations on the home island of Kyushu.

Paralyzing Attack

In the paralyzing attack on the industrial center of Nagoya, with a population of some 1,500,000 persons, the silver Superfortresses carried out the most concentrated exhibition of pinpoint fire-bombing yet seen in the Pacific war.

Approximately 570,000 blazing bombs were unloaded in daylight attacks upon a nine mile square section of the teeming city which is packed with vital industrial works necessary to the Jap war machine.

Put Torch To City

Five formations of the B-29s roared over the target areas for an hour and a half to put the torch to the already partly burned out metropolis. The heat from fires raging on the ground was so intense that it boiled up severe air disturbances which tossed the heavy bombers like matchsticks in a pool. The strain was so great that crewmen had to be belted into their seats in the planes.

It was Nagoya's third heavy incendiary attack.

Eden, Soong And Molotov Leave

Three Of "Big Five" Foreign Ministers Depart From World Conference

FRENCH MINISTER TO LEAVE TUESDAY
By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The United Nations conference sought of formulating a world security order while the "big five" awaited word from home governments on solving the regional security and trusteeship issues.

Great Britain reopened the regional security pact controversy by asking for a special concession to the empire's dominions, by which each could rush to the defense of the other without awaiting orders from the world organization. The British request met instant opposition from the other great powers.

Follows Britain's Lead

Australia's apparently following Britain's lead, demanded that the "big five" be stripped of their individual "veto" power in the security council when acting on the use of regional pacts to put down local aggression. Australia asked that regional groups be permitted to act to suppress aggression on a simple majority of the security council, including but three of the "big five" votes.

With three of the "big five" foreign ministers gone, and a fourth about to go, major decisions hereafter will be made by the home governments. British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said as much when he departed Sunday. V. M. Molotov, Russian foreign minister, left for home last Wednesday, a few days after T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister, left for Washington. French Foreign Minister Georges Dibault is to leave for home Tuesday.

Marines Poised For Final Blow In Naha Battle

Counter-Attacks By Jap Forces On Okinawa Are Completely Repulsed

YANKS STEADILY DRIVING AHEAD
By JOHN R. HENRY
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, May 14.—Sixth Marine Division troops stood poised to strike their final blow in the battle of Naha today while other Leathernecks and Doughboys seized vital ground leading to the twin strong-points of Shuri and Yonabaru.

Japanese forces were resisting with fanatical ferocity all along the trans-Okinawa battleline, fighting the Yanks on the western flank almost to a standstill. Counter-attacks by land and sea, the enemy tried ineffectually to halt the determined Americans who pushed forward as much as 600 yards in some sectors on Sunday.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' headquarters described the fighting as "heavy," declaring that "stiff" Jap resistance to the Sixth Marines resulted in "few changes" in the western sector.

Declaring that the 10th Army troops of Lieut. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner's command were advancing on the approaches to Shuri, which is the central bulwark of the enemy's Naha line, Nimitz said that a unit of the 96th Infantry was "approaching the summit" of Conical Hill. This height was described officially as a "protective barrier for both Shuri and Yonabaru."

Into High Ground

In addition, the communiqué from Nimitz said that elements of the First Marine Division advanced into high ground south of Dakeshi village after crushing a Jap counter-attack. At least 100 enemy troops were slain in the abortive counter-thrust.

After crushing the Jap charge, the Leathernecks pushed into the hilly terrain which forms natural protection for Shuri. In their advance the Marines ran into heavy artillery and mortar fire which rendered their progress difficult.

Other stern enemy counter-measures which were doomed to failure included an attempted landing behind the Yanks lines on the west coast of Okinawa, main island of the Ryukyus and but 325 miles from Japan.

Charge Family Had Millions Of Fake Coupons

NEW YORK, May 14.—(INS)—A Brooklyn butcher and five other members of his family were to be arraigned today on charges of possessing nearly 22 million counterfeit sugar, gasoline and red ration coupons.

Their arrest, after firemen responding to a routine alarm found the coupons in the modest, duplex home, highlighted a week-end which saw metropolitan New York suffering from the worst meat shortage of the war.

After a heavy bout with the mathematics involved, police said the cache consisted of 20 million stamps with a value of 200 million red points, 500,000 gasoline coupons representing two and a half million gallons, and a million and a quarter sugar coupons representing six and a quarter million pounds.

Launch Seventh War Loan With Warning Of Hard Pacific War

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(INS)—The Seventh War Loan Drive with a goal of fourteen billion dollars was officially underway today, launched with a warning that America still faces a hard and tough war against Japan.

The campaign was started at a three-hour bond show in Washington where Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau declared that "the greatest challenge to American democracy still lies before us."

"That challenge is to our self-restraint, our self-discipline, our self-control," he said during the Sunday night show at the local Uline arena.

"What is demanded of us is this—that we accept triumph without relaxation. The fruits of peace are not yet ripe for us to pick."

The treasury secretary declared the war is not over for the men who already are beginning to move from Europe to the Pacific. He added that "they look to us for the same unstinting support that helped them to victory over Hitler's Germany."

Goering First On Trial List

NEW YORK, May 14.—(INS)—The Luxembourg radio said today that Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering, former No. 2 Nazi and former commander of the Luftwaffe who was captured by American troops last week, will be the first Nazi leader to be brought to trial by the allied commission for the investigation of war crimes.

Charges made against Goering by Czechoslovakia and Poland already have been examined by this commission and the commission has moved that Goering be brought to trial, said the broadcast as reported by the FCC.

Report $718,000 In Individual Sales In County

Payroll Deductions Sales Give Campaign Good Start In This District

QUOTAS ARE MUCH LARGER FOR BUYERS

With a neat package of individual bond sales already in the till, Lawrence County's War Finance Committee got away today on the formal opening of the Seventh War Loan Campaign. In the bond headquarters, the Greater New Castle Association offices, it was stated that the total individual bonds already sold amounted to $718,000 of which $648,000 is in "E" bonds.

This showing puts Lawrence County among the first three counties in the Fort Pitt Area and is a good start on the quota. The county's quota for individual sales is $3,680,000 of which $2,640,000 is "E" bonds.

One Quarter In

The bonds already sold, which are the result of an outstanding piece of work in the payroll Deduction Division, represent about 25 per cent of the "E" bond quota and 20 per cent of the individual bond quota. Included in individual sales are all bonds sold to individuals, "E," "F," and "G" and tax notes.

County Chairman W. Walter Brahm and Co-Chairman J. S. McKee are delighted with the showing on the first day of the campaign but Chairman Brahm warned against over-confidence. It is a fine start, but only a start, said he. "Lawrence County has not failed yet in any war task assigned her and this would be a poor time to fail."

Quota Much Larger

The quota this time is much larger than it has been in previous campaigns, which means more work, more purchases and more enthusiasm. The solicitors have started their rounds, the banks are set to handle any orders and today from 3 to 4 p. m. the stores are featuring a one hour bond sale. Some stores will sell no merchandise at all but confine the work of the sales forces to bond sales.

It's the Mighty Seventh. The bond campaign that is the beginning of the end of the Japanese aggression. This is the campaign that calls for the extra ounce of effort.

Two Airmen Killed On Way To Homes For Mother's Day

Two Others Injured In Crash At South Bend, Ind., During Foggy Landing

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 14.—(INS)—Two fliers were killed and two others injured while homeward bound for Mother's Day after long service overseas. South Bend officials reported today.

The plane crashed at a South Bend air field as fog covered the field.

Frank Plard II of Saginaw, Mich., son of a federal judge there, said he and the others flew from Camp San Marcos, Tex. to Chicago, but the municipal airport in Chicago was so congested because of an air show that they were ordered to proceed to South Bend.

The air show was held in connection with the seventh war loan. Names of the men killed were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

If you want to cheer for the victory, if you want to mark V-E Day, if you want to show that you're really thrilled, well, brother I'll tell you the way. Dig down for your checkbook, pronto, for the kids who are over the pond, then fill out the check for a good sized sum, and purchase yourself a bond. It's easy to cheer and make speeches, but that stuff is now out of date, it's time to buy bonds, to get them back home, the weather is fifty-eight.

Effect Of Public Relations On War Told By Sergeant

Sgt. MacAvoy Of Deshon Office Explains Job To Westminster Students At Dinner

Army public relations jobs combine the work of a newspaper man, a radio script writer, a publicity director, and a Mr. Anthony, according to Sgt. Henry R. MacAvoy, public relations man at Deshon General Hospital in Butler, who spoke at the annual publications dinner at Westminster college at New Wilmington Saturday evening.

A large group of students and local newspaper people heard Sgt. MacAvoy explain how public relations are as vital to modern war as ammunition. As examples he pointed out the good effect of public relations in checking unfounded rumors which were slowing down blood donations and the bad effects of some unwise publicity about prisoners of war. The sergeant, who formerly worked in industrial promotion and advertising, has been at Deshon about a year and a half.

Seniors on the staff of The Herald, student newspaper, The Argo, college yearbook, and Scrawl, campus literary magazine, were honored at the dinner which was sponsored by the Westminster chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity.

centenary attack of the war, and added more rubble to the already ruined giant Mitsubishi aircraft engine work. In addition, scattered throughout the target area are hundreds of "home factories" where families turn out parts for enemy war machines.

Little Opposition

Guam, May 14.—The largest B-29 raid in history, which left the northern sector of Nagoya a lake of flame and smoke, was one of the easiest they have carried out, in the opinion of crews of more than 500 Superfortresses that streamed over the target in a two-hour sky parade.

Anti-aircraft fire encountered was meager and inaccurate, with very few enemy fighters aloft to offer opposition to the giant bombers.

The first of five elements participating in the raid covered the vital manufacturing area with incendiaries and columns of smoke rose 17,000 feet—and from there on it was like heaping more fuel into a hot furnace, said Col. Carl R. Stordie of Denton, Tex., who led one group over the target.

No luncheon meeting Tuesday noon.

On Wednesday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, at The Castleton, the annual Tail Twister's ball will be held. This will be an informal dinner-dance. An unusually fine program has been arranged and there will be entertainment for those who do not dance.

TERRIFIC AIR STRIKING POWER CONFRONTS JAPS

have forgotten we had established great air bases in Alaska and on the Aleutians. Bombers from those at the northern Japanese islands. And when the day comes that B-29 bombers are sent to those most northern American bases, if our government so desires, those huge Fortresses of the air will be able to strike anywhere on Nippon's home territory.

Gigantic Air Force

The United States had built up a force of carrier-based planes which is so tremendous, that it has overcome the necessity for land-based planes in any attack. Furthermore, with our newly established air bases at Saipan, Guam, the Philippines, and lastly on Okinawa and with our long range bombers, every portion of the Japanese homeland may be devastated.

All that is necessary now is that the United States have a sufficient number of the Super-Fortress bomber type of plane. And news reports tell us that the production of medium bombers is being cut down or discontinued, whereas the production of the super-bombers is being emphasized to the greatest possible degree.

Japan has had a long time in her home islands, but one thing is a certainty—everything which is not underground will be eventually bombed into destruction.

labor, liberal and conservative party members at Britain's darkest hour in the war.

The prime minister pointed out that among the most important things to be accomplished now is that the world organization for which the United Nations presently striving in San Francisco does not become "an idle name."

He appealed to the United Nations to be sure that the "simple and honorable purposes" for which the war in Europe was fought would find full recognition at the peace table in fact as well as in words.

The British leader took occasion to make an unexpected direct attack on Eamon De Valera, prime minister of Eire, accusing De Valera and the government of Southern Ireland of "treachery" with the Germans and later with the Japanese representatives to their hearts content.

Although the main portion of his address was confined to a chronological report of the struggle in Europe, Churchill singled out De Valera for severe criticism for his failure to join the allies in the struggle against Nazism.

Mrs. John Hall wouldn't have minded so much if her imitation pearl choker had been stolen... but her precious red points! Now she saves every scrap of fat trimmed off meat or left on plates. Once a week she melts it down, pours it into the salvage can. It adds up to more points for the Hill family. More fat to help make war- and home-front essentials. Hooray!

Pauley Ambitions For High U. S. Post

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Put it down in your book to watch Edwin W. Pauley, who is leaving for Moscow to be American member of the allied reparations commission. Pauley, a big, ham-fisted Californian who has made a fortune in oil during the past 15 years, is not one to keep opportunity waiting on his doorstep. In fact, the first time Pauley and Pauley is out of the door like Flash Gordon.

Treasurer of the Democratic national committee since May, 1942, Pauley was in with Democratic Chairman Robert Hannegan on the play that put over Harry Truman as the vice presidential candidate at the convention last summer. He and Hannegan have become close friends and between them there is complete loyalty.

Believed Inspired By Ickes

Hannegan resented the attacks on Pauley that have appeared since his appointment as a reparations commissioner coupled with reports that Pauley is seeking a higher office. These reports, Hannegan believes, have been inspired by Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes.

Between Pauley and Ickes a kind of feud has gone on for some time. It arose over the question of off-shore oil. As an independent oil operator, Pauley has an interest in oil off the California coast. When Ickes, who is federal oil administrator, was in California during the campaign last fall, he told Pauley that the federal government had a definite concern with off-shore oil and intended to protect the public interest.

"That issue has been decided 33 times by the supreme court," Pauley said. "Now what are you stirring it up all over again for? You will just make it harder for the independents to operate."

Back in Washington, Ickes dropped Pauley when it would have been expected that Pauley would have been named as a reparations commissioner. Pauley, who is a member of the reparations commission, has been very vocal in his criticism of the federal oil policy.

Directed Money Drives

He does not deny that he is a good money maker and the condition of the Democratic treasury is proof of that. He has directed money drives for United China relief and for other good works.

Pauley will sit down in Moscow opposite a Russian diplomat when he knows from prior negotiations that the Russians are planning to demand reparations. He will be a member of the reparations commission. In 1941, President Roosevelt sent Pauley to Europe to serve as liaison with Great Britain on the use of oil tankers, which were then critically needed by the beleaguered British.

In London, Pauley met Mr. Mayhew and the two of them and preliminary details of a negotiation which eventually took the American to Moscow. He speaks with pride of his part in working out a tanker deal that benefitted both Britain and Russia. British member of the reparations commission, incidentally, will be Sir Arthur Salter, authority on shipping and economist of distinction.

Plays Down Financial Success

In his new assignment, Pauley wants to emphasize his background in academic economics, playing down his success in the practical field, which has enabled him to put together a fortune estimated at $20,000,000. His official biography, out by the White House, shows he received an M. S. degree at the University of California for his graduate work in the college of commerce and business administration. Later he taught economics at the university.

Pauley has been a regent of the University of California since 1933 and is close to Robert G. Sproul, president of the university. He has no doubt, so said to him by many of his intimates in Moscow.

What Pauley hopes to do is to lay down the general groundwork of an understanding or reparations between the three allies. The total to be divided will not in any event be large and half of whatever it is will in all probability go to Russia. The execution of the agreement, after it is reached, he expects to leave to the Russians.

If it works out as he hopes, Pauley would be back in two or three months. About his ambitions after that, he is reticent. But he certainly has ambitions and they are not likely to be modest.

Ickes is fearful that Pauley wants his job, which is apparently not true. There have been reports that Pauley would like to be secretary of the treasury. You can be certain that a mission to Moscow will not satisfy this 42-year-old Californian by adoption. He comes originally from Indiana, where he learned the practical "how-to's" of politics in infancy.

Food Situation Needs Remedying

WASHINGTON, May 14.—President Truman has pledged himself to carry out his predecessors' foreign policies and personal commitments. That was the natural and proper course. For one thing, they were Mr. Truman's policies too. For another, both parties are for them and so is the country as a whole. As to the late President's personal promises, lacking some sound reason, it is only decent to make them good.

However, it is to be hoped Mr. Truman will not consider himself obligated to regard as inviolable the domestic policies he has inherited not to preserve intact the unworkable mechanisms which Mr. Roosevelt devised to deal with certain vital problems of the home front. That would mean adoption of several ill-conceived and impracticable theories. It also would perpetuate mistakes the cost of which it is hard to exaggerate and which are responsible for what now is a dire situation. It is a national emergency that the food situation is so bad.

EVERY family in America already has felt the effects of the ineffective Administration handling of food, pricing and rationing of food. We know now that for the balance of this year, and probably the next many basic foods will be short. We know that all kinds of food will be harder to get than now, when it is certainly hard enough. We know that even if there is another bumper food crop this seventh in a row, as Mr. Lawrence Sullivan points out in the current Nation's Business, there will be barely enough food for our domestic needs and our foreign commitments. Shortages and rationing will be a permanent feature of the country's life, at least for the next several years.

THIS report on the dire food situation follows closely that of the Washington Post, which has been in the forefront of exposing the food situation. It is a sobering and alarming picture. It is a picture of a country in which the food situation is so bad that the government is being forced to ration food. It is a picture of a country in which the food situation is so bad that the government is being forced to ration food.

It is a picture of a country in which the food situation is so bad that the government is being forced to ration food. It is a picture of a country in which the food situation is so bad that the government is being forced to ration food.

Price Of Victory

First rough estimates of what it cost the American people to destroy Nazism and bring Germany to her knees are now making their appearance. The price in heartache and in suffering never can be reckoned. But the most important item on the balance sheet of any war is the cost in human lives and casualty figures which the Army and Navy have released reveal what this has been.

In the war with Germany, up to the end of March, 148,583 American soldiers, sailors and Marines had lost their lives. Total American casualties, including wounded and missing, ran to 747,164. This is a tragically heavy price. But it cannot be said that it is disproportionately large considering the tremendous number of men involved and the magnitude of the victory achieved.

In the First World War 53,462 American soldiers and sailors were killed or died of wounds, although a much smaller Army was in action for a shorter length of time. The British Empire in this war, with an army smaller than that of the United States, suffered nearly a million casualties, including 242,995 killed in the first five years of the conflict. The number of German and Russian soldiers killed in battle runs far into the millions, according to best available sources.

American commanders won most of their battles with the greatest possible economy in human life. They sought to defeat the enemy with firepower, instead of sheer weight of flesh and blood.

Goering Must Pay

Of the three most notorious collaborators in the construction of Nazi Germany, the Allied dragnet so far has brought up only one who can be held to account for that offense against humanity. Hitler and Goebbels may or may not be dead. Goering alone has been taken alive.

His chief companions in crime stepped out from under the avalanche that descended upon those responsible for the anguish of years of war and worse than war. Perhaps Goering has some thought that he will somehow save himself. That hope is vain.

The name of Goering is on the lists of Nazi war criminals drawn up by all the Allied nations. Goering's Luftwaffe slew thousands of innocent men, women and children, wrecked Warsaw, Rotterdam, Coventry, caused grave damage to London. Goering, who now comes forward with a tale that Hitler wanted to kill him, too, at the last minute, as an obvious bid for sympathy, is as great a criminal as Hitler, whose every act he condoned.

He played a major part in the creation and operation of that ghastly thing that has now been crushed. It would be a grave miscarriage of justice were Goering not required to pay the full penalty.

Gen. Doolittle's Forecast

In his review of the accomplishments of the Eighth Air Force over Europe, General Jimmie Doolittle has given Japan a preview of what is coming—fast and furiously—to its home islands.

Doolittle's famous raid of April, 1942, over Tokyo gave the Japs their first inkling of what America was going to do to them from the air. There are 2400 Flying Fortresses and Liberators in Europe. They have done a job on Germany that ought to take the heart out of the most fanatical Jap, though it probably won't until they get the real thing.

The bulk of these big bombers can be transferred to the war upon Japan to insure the same kind of bombing, and worse, that Germany got. A captured Japanese naval lieutenant commander at Manila is quoted as saying his country will surrender under the effects of saturation bombing.

That may be, but we should beware of Japs bearing propaganda and fight it out in all possible ways until they do quit. Saturation bombing is a certainty. But that is going to mean more and more bases.

The fierce fighting on Okinawa shows what it means to get such bases. The Chinese Japs are striving to some purpose to save one base we already have at Chongking. It will go a long way toward shortening the war if Chiang Kai-shek's army goes into action to help get other bases. Jimmie Doolittle's bomber crews have their eyes turned particularly on Tokyo, and they need them.

Changing To One-Front War

By announcement promptly a program for redeploying the 4,000,000 soldiers who have fought so gallantly in Europe the War department earns the gratitude of not only the men themselves but of their relatives in this country. While disappointment doubtless is in store for many Americans who may have thought their war days were over, there can be no denying the fact that the plans as made public constitute an earnest effort to play fair.

Under the point system which has been adopted, each soldier will be able to fill out his own scorecard and determine exactly his future prospects. Parenthood, the number of months spent in the Army, length of overseas and combat service will all be weighed and considered in deciding whether a man shall be discharged or put in line for movement to the Pacific front. Certainly this plan is better than leaving the matter to chance or to the whims of military authorities far from the scene of action.

It is clear that it will take considerable time for the nation to change completely from a two-front to a one-front basis. Excepting the few men already on their way from Europe to the Far East and the 400,000 destined to remain on guard on the continent, an army of more than 3,000,000 soldiers will have to be moved. Under the best of conditions the mere task of transporting them will require a year or more. In addition, many will receive furloughs and retraining when they reach America.

So Japan is not destined to feel immediately the full might of American military power. But its inevitableness may well inspire many uneasy thoughts in the Japanese. It is responsible for reports that influential Japanese circles are supporting a movement looking toward some sort of peace. There may be this sort of wishful thinking on the part of some Japs, but the war lords will remain in the saddle until the end, and the power they wield makes it certain that the end of the war in the Pacific can come only with the complete destruction of Japan and its military might.

It's not the wild man, which is furnishing the incentive for Allied designs on Borneo.

Unless the Nazis have better luck in turning up some secret plowshares than they had with secret weapons, they may really learn what it feels like to be hungry.

What causes sleeplessness among Jap leaders is the knowledge that peace terms to Germany started as unconditional surrender and remained unconditional surrender to the end.

Men like gifts that can be used every day in the year. For several years, women prefer gifts that last but a day or a week.

Good Taste

By FRANK R. KENT

ADDRESSING IMPORTANT PERSONAGES

I have just received an official communication from the President of the United States, Mr. Harry S. Truman, regarding the importance of good taste in addressing important persons.

The President's message is as follows: "Good taste is a necessary attribute of a gentleman. It is a quality that is not easily acquired, but it is one that is essential to the success of a man in the world. It is a quality that is not easily acquired, but it is one that is essential to the success of a man in the world."

The President's message is a reminder to all of us that good taste is a necessary attribute of a gentleman. It is a quality that is not easily acquired, but it is one that is essential to the success of a man in the world.

Capital Pondering Fate Of War Criminals
Smaller Fry Seek To Duck Responsibility
Donald Nelson Seems Completely Eclipsed

By HELEN ESSARY
(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The capital is pondering over the degree of punishment to be imposed on Axis war criminals now that V-E day has passed.

Italian partisans disposed of many of Italy's high-ranking Fascists when they executed Benito Mussolini, his mistress and his personal followers at Dongo, near Milan.

Now President Truman says that he believes Adolf Hitler to be dead while Dr. Joseph Paul Goebbels' assistant claims that the Nazi propaganda minister has committed suicide in Berlin.

With the top Axis leaders gone, someone, of course, the Japs will have to be expected to commit harakiri. The Allied Crimes Commission will have a job on its hands rounding up the leaders.

The whereabouts of Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop and German Chief Heinrich Himmler have been subject to varied reports but it would not surprise Allied officials if they had committed suicide of themselves.

All this in a city which is somewhat complicated by a problem. Once the major Axis leaders are brought to trial, they may face the issue of responsibility for their crimes.

If this happens, the Allies will have to devise some rapid statistics to prevent them from going back to their old jobs. It is a problem that must be solved.

Supplies Piled Up

Have thousands of supplies are piled up in Europe to such quantities as to give the Army serious concern. The problem in shipping supplies to the Pacific has been anticipated.

This has been reflected in the cutbacks of many war contracts which will affect the manpower situation in the home front.

The supply situation in Europe is a problem that must be solved. It is a problem that must be solved.

TEACHING THE SLOW PUPIL

There are some wonderful teachers in our country. I want to present some parts of a letter from a teacher of the third, fourth and fifth grades in a rural school.

Entering the school, I found in the first grade a boy ten years old, who had been in the school for three years. He was a slow learner. He was a slow learner. He was a slow learner.

He was a slow learner. He was a slow learner. He was a slow learner.

BABY TEETH
Many people seem to think that it is not necessary to look after a child's baby teeth. They say that the milk teeth will drop out pretty soon, so why worry.

Dentists and doctors know that it is very important to see that the first teeth are properly cared for. They should be inspected often. When a cavity is suspected, the dentist should be consulted. He knows what should be done and his advice should be followed. Neglect of the teeth in childhood may cause a lot of trouble later.

Three Here Will Contact Nurses

Red Cross Representatives To Recruit For Army Volunteers In Drive For 9000 Nurses

In connection with an appeal issued by the Pennsylvania State Nurses association for 900 volunteers for military duty by June 1, as the state's quota in a national quota of 9000 volunteer nurses set by the army, special representatives of the Red Cross have been appointed locally to contact nurses here.

The three who will act as special Red Cross representatives of Lawrence county chapter to contact I-A and I-B-1 nurses, that is, those classified as not essential, are George Ruck, Sam Lewis, and Lee Grover. Nurses have been classified by the procurement and assignment division of the War Manpower commission.

This will be the last call for nurses made by the Red Cross, Mrs. Margaret Dagnon, chairman of the Nurses Recruitment for the Red Cross, said.

WASHINGTON REPORT

light left than subsequent developments proved. In addition, the battle west of the Rhine and the dash across Germany used up fewer supplies than had been expected.

A program of tax legislation is in the making, and it is possible it will be announced soon now that the war in Europe is ended.

President Truman, in fact, may hold a special news conference for the purpose of announcing the program and explaining its purposes.

There has been no intimation as yet concerning the contents of the tax program, but indications are that it will call for a certain amount of downward revision of taxes to give a stimulus to the process of reconverting business to peacetime production.

Reconversion Pressing

The ending of the war in Europe is bringing government leaders face to face with the necessity of devoting attention to the reconversion problem. This purposely neglected job must be tackled—and fast.

Taxes are vital in the reconversion picture. There is a widespread belief that wartime taxes are such as to discourage business initiative and the problem is to provide a little incentive to risk-taking.

However, individuals should not expect any appreciable reduction in their tax rates any time soon. Whatever tax revision is undertaken (likely) will deal primarily with corporation taxes. There is strong pressure, for example, for revising downward or repealing the corporation excess profits tax as a standard to post-war business.

One overlooked problem left for President Truman is the future of Donald Nelson. Almost completely eclipsed, he maintains a quiet office in the State Department. His duties have not been outlined. He has visited the White House but once since President Roosevelt's death.

Even those close to Nelson do not know what his plans may be. They believe Mr. Truman will find a spot for him, possibly connected with post-V-E day problems.

According to the best available reports, his mission to China turned out well and the program he outlined for a Chinese version of WLB to develop China's industrial war potential is being implemented by the staff members he left in China.

OCD NOTES

James Gibson, city councilman, who was named by council when the OCD was organized here as custodian of federal property, has an inventory of all property issued to local organizations, he stated today. It is likely that some of it may be shipped from here because the state defense council has directed local branches to get their loaned fire fighting and medical equipment in order pending disposition orders from Washington in line with President Harry S. Truman's request for disbandment of civilian defense by June 30. Drugs which had been stored at local hospitals were returned to the national office some time ago, according to OCD Director D. O. Davies.

The local branch has about a dozen fire pumps, several thousand feet of hose ladders and other fire equipment. Some pumps are in the city building annex and others at Central fire department. No strenuous effort will be made by the city to retain the hose because it is single jacket and not of the caliber used by the city fire department. The OCD also has gas masks, helmets and about 450 stirrup or hand pumps in the East street storerooms and hundreds are located at various places throughout the city. The city also has stretchers and other material in storage. So far the city has not received any orders to actually ship the material anywhere, hence no orders have been sent out to wardens to return the OCD equipment to local headquarters.

According to a Harrisburg dispatch local officials of the OCD have been ordered to make inspections of the equipment and be ready to return it to any point designated, upon a moment's notice.

WOMEN LIFE GUARDS

GROVE CITY, Pa., May 14.—(INS)—Women lifeguards will direct activities at the Grove City municipal swimming pool officials today announced. In designating Memorial Day as the opening day of the pool, the appointments of Mrs. Fred McBride, Alice Webster, Evelyn Horan and Doris Weber to the pool staff were revealed.

If you are making a rolled item by hand, first make a row of machine stitching close to the edge of the material, then roll the item over this. One row is enough for thin material, two for a heavier type of fabric.

many perhaps set to work under guards, until some plan can be evolved and put into working order, whereby the German people can erect on the ruins of the country a working government.

It is a condition that I believe has never arisen in the history of all wars on the face of this earth. Heretofore, there has always been some government, with proper officials, who could negotiate a peace.

This war against Germany is terminating in a very unusual manner. Hitler, Goering and Goebbels cannot be found. They are said to be dead. No one knows for certain what has happened to them. They are the men who were the heads of the German government at the outset of the war. They cannot act, or if alive, will not act and it is up to the Allies to take possession. Bretton Woods, Dumbarton Oaks and San Francisco are absolutely thrown in the shade and it looks as though President Truman, Churchill and Stalin will have to act through their Commanding Generals without any "blueprint" to guide them.

It is a most interesting situation.

Science can help restore youthfulness to face and throat

Would you like the skin of your face, your throat, to grow younger again? If so, try scientific ENDOCREME.

ENDOCREME, with its 7-year record of success, is helping thousands to improve the very skin itself, not merely its superficial appearance. For thousands, it is doing this to a degree heretofore thought impossible. The secret of ENDOCREME'S success is ACTIVOL™. This activol™ is the laboratory counterpart of natural, skin-vitalizing substance . . . a substance that decreases with age. Thus, when you apply ENDOCREME, it helps compensate for this loss. Absorbed under the skin's surface, ENDOCREME acts to rebuild cells, tissues. Thus, aging, dry, coarse, lined skins tend to become fresher, firmer, smoother, more youthfully attractive. How better can you invest your cosmetic dollars? Many report marked improvement in only 30 days.

ADAMS-MURPHY

QUIET WEDDING

Miss Avel Jean Adams, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Adams, 310 Glenwood, Ellwood City, and Lieut. Thomas A. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, 416 East Winter avenue, this city, were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon, May 12, in the First Methodist church of Ellwood City at 3 o'clock. Rev. E. Gladden, pastor, officiated, using the single ring ceremony. The event was quietly celebrated, due to illness of the bride's mother.

The altar, illuminated with the lighted cross and Cathedral candles, was banked by large vases of snapdragons. Appropriate wedding music was softly played by Miss Margaret McCurdy, organist, preceding and during the ceremony, with only the bridal party present.

For her marriage, the bride was attired in a French blue crepe gown, with eyelid trimming, with small white hat caught with a shoulder length veil. Her shoulder corsage was of white orchids. For luck, she wore a sixpence sent her by the bridegroom from England while on active duty there.

Mrs. Lloyd Koch of Ellwood City served her sister as matron of honor. Her husband, Lloyd Koch, S. 2-c of New York, was best man. She chose for her attire, navy blue crepe with matching accessories and a shoulder bouquet of red roses.

A wedding dinner served by candlelight followed at The Castle Inn, this city, for the bridal party and immediate families numbering 13.

Following, the couple left by plane for New York City, Cape Cod and other eastern points. At the completion of their honeymoon they will continue on to Nashville, N. C. where he will report to the rehabilitation camp, to await further assignment.

Both Lt. and Mrs. Murphy were graduated from Ellwood City High School. She is also a graduate of Geneva College and was employed in the offices of the National Tube Co., Ellwood City. Lt. Murphy before entering service in July 1942 was a student at Westminster college. He spent 18 months in the European theater of war, was taken prisoner in the invasion of Normandy in June 1944 and escaped in January 1945 while being moved to another area. He returned to the United States in April 1945.

Lt. Murphy, active on football teams in both high school and college, has been awarded the Purple Heart, two presidential citations, the bronze medal and three stars for participating in three major battles.

NAGOYA

Nagoya, target today of 500 American Superfortress bombers, is a prime objective in the mounting aerial campaign to wipe out Nippon's war industries.

Third largest city of Japan, most of its population of more than a million probably is engaged in war industries or transport, since Nagoya in recent times has been a center of cotton manufacture and distribution center for the main Japanese homeland island of Honshu.

The city lies in the very center of the island, a major stop on Japan's great trunk railway 235 miles southwest of Tokyo. Light-draught steamers and rail lines connect Nagoya with its seaport, Yokohama, 30 miles across Ise Bay. But the city itself has an excellent harbor which before the war could accommodate 38 10,000-ton steamers at one time.

For hundreds of years it was the center of Japan's pottery trade, but in recent time King Cotton had pre-empted pottery as a leading product.

In addition, the coming of the machine age to Japan brought an enormous development of machinery manufacture there. In 1937, the latest year for which figures are available, production of machinery in Nagoya increased 40 per cent over the previous year—a significant commentary on Nippon's war plants at that time.

Race Is High: The Mighty "Big War Load"
Bus Extra Bonds... May 14—June 30

Groundwork

Millions will be needed for "Deferred Maintenance"

Today's mighty war loads are riding on foundations like that pictured. "Highways" into which the railroads have put more than 4 billion dollars for improvements since the last war. This groundwork is the necessary basis for carrying the greatest load in history.

Wear and tear on roadway, bridges, locomotives, cars and equipment have been terrific. And material and labor for needed maintenance are not obtainable now beyond the minimum necessary for safe, continued operation. As a result, much work that should be done has had to be deferred. So the railroads are wearing out 25 per cent faster than they can be restored.

Money from current revenue should be saved to pay for the needed repairs and replacements when material and labor are available. But the tax law forbids it. Money for needed repairs cannot be spent as it is earned it is considered "profit" and practically taxed away. But it isn't profit. It is the life blood of the railroads.

To tax this money away, simply because it cannot be spent now, due to war conditions, threatens the backbone of American transportation.

Congressional amendment of the tax law to permit this money to be put aside for repairs and replacement would mean strong postwar railroads and thousands of jobs for returning fighting men in furnishing materials and restoring the railroads for the needs of tomorrow.

Under Military Strategy Japan Is Beaten Nation

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Guam, May 14.—Viewed under the cold light of military strategy, Japan today is a beaten nation, and the only unanswered question is "Will the Japanese leaders throw in the towel or stagger on until the knockout blow?"

Army and Navy leaders are wary of predictions that might boomerang but the consensus is that "anything might happen at anytime now." Unless the Japanese sue for peace the general belief is that the war in the Pacific will end in about a year.

Final Phase Of War

With the reconquest of the Philippines and the invasion of Okinawa the stage is being set for the final phase of the war against Japan and battle preparations are being made on the premise that the Japanese will fight to the end.

Some officers believe that Japan will sue for the best possible peace. They argue that Nippon's leaders then will be in a position to "save face" by telling their people their Axis allies abandoned them and they cannot fight the entire world.

Fight To End

Admiral William F. Halsey, however, recently warned against premature acceptance to any Japanese peace plan. In a speech to Pacific theatre chaplains he said:

"It would be criminal not to fight this war through to a successful conclusion that will leave the Japanese nation too weak to wage another war."

Barring such a development, however, even these fairly optimistic sources admit that the war will increase in fury to the bitter end.

THERE ARE NO War Bond Salesmen IN FOXHOLES

It doesn't take a salesman to make these men buy War Bonds. They see and feel the horrible effects of war. They know how much equipment is needed and how far it has to come. And they realize the tremendous costs. Show them that you understand, too, by supporting the 7th War Loan Drive—the big double drive that takes the place of the two war loan drives we had by this time last year. If you have any income, from any source—whether from work, land, or capital—you have a personal quota to make in the 7th. Find out what your quota is—and then buy more if you can.

Remember, over there, they're giving much more than their share.

Serious Act Of Vandalism Here

Boys Loosen Manhole Cover On Stand Pipe On Walnut Hill Sunday Allowing Water To Escape

One of the most serious acts of vandalism reported here in some time, bordering on sabotage, occurred Sunday, when boys loosened the bolts on the manhole cover of the great standpipe on Walnut Hill at the top of Chestnut street. It was reported today by J. Lepere Matthews, superintendent of the City of New Castle Water company.

Had the manhole cover been completely removed, 200,000 gallons of water would have rushed from the opening, and would have flooded that section of the city, probably causing serious damage. Some water did escape before the damage was repaired by employees of the company.

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD BOY FACES SENTENCE FOR SLAYING GIRL

SCRANTON, Pa., May 14.—(INS)—Myron Semunich, 14, confessed slayer of nine-year-old Mae Barrett at nearby Vandling, was slated to appear before Judge M. J. Eagen today to hear sentence imposed.

The former high school honor student pleaded guilty to murder generally and this enabled the court to fix the degree of the crime. Lackawanna County District Attorney James F. Brady did not oppose the death sentence when the youth made his court appearance. The girl was brutally bludgeoned January 2 in an abandoned shed.

Sunday afternoon, they visited the Margaret Henry Home where the annual Mothers Day program was carried out, with District Attorney Leroy Donaldson as the speaker. An honor roll, containing the names of 55 young men and women from the home was dedicated.

Charles W. Reed, of the Margaret Henry Home Board thanked the visitors for their interest and assistance they have given down through the years, and the response from the lodge was given by Thomas Cunningham, Mr. Cunningham paid tribute to the memory of Margaret Henry, and also to the fine work being done by Mrs. Lida J. Afterwards, the members repaired to the Eagles Home on South Jefferson street, where further tribute was given to their own mothers, with Mrs. Elvira Herberg presiding as mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Arline Patterson, president of the Auxiliary, presented a bouquet to Mrs. Mary Rae, mother organizer of the auxiliary; and to Mrs. Mary Peterson, a great grandmother, who has brought in the most members to the auxiliary since its organization.

A duet was given by Mrs. Adaline Navarra and Mrs. Orpha McCoull, readings by Mrs. Cecelia Jackson, Mrs. Frances Johnston, and Mrs. Elvira Herberg; and the drill teams formed an "M" for Mother. Margaret Naples In May Crowning

Is May Queen During Impressive
Ceremonies In St. Paul's Cathedral, Pittsburgh

World Sodality Day, was fittingly observed on Sunday afternoon, when more than 3,000 Catholic women gathered in St. Paul's Cathedral, Pittsburgh, for the beautiful May crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Crowning the Blessed Mother's statue was a local New Castle girl, Miss Margaret Naples, of 604 Pearson street, during the impressive ceremonies which started at 3 o'clock. An approximate 10 Southwestern Pennsylvania counties attended the ceremonies, which this year marked the fourth annual observance.

Miss Naples is the daughter of Andrew Naples of Pearson street, this city, and is outstanding for her work in religious and civic affairs. This is the first time that a May queen has been elected outside of the Pittsburgh Unions, and it is with pride that this St. Vitus parish Sodalist was chosen. She is the president of the Lawrence County Union of Sodality and the vice-president of St. Vitus Sodality.

Representatives from the Lawrence County sodalities which took part in the procession were: St. John, Marian Budway; St. Monica's, Wampum, Annella Flecher; St. Joseph's, Eleanor Wilkevich; St. Vitus, Betty Terranova; St. Mary's, Delores O'Leary. Officers of the Lawrence County Union of Sodality, who also participated were: Rita Leonardo, Margaret Vallely, Helen Crudell, Ann Lucas, Barbara Mariacher, Josephine Stoga and Angelina Venditto.

Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Coakley of the Sacred Heart church, East End, Pittsburgh, gave an inspiring sermon, his subject being, "A Woman's Place in History."

Solemn benediction brought services to a close. Rev. Fr. Charles Moosman, diocesan director of Sodalitys being celebrant; Rev. Fr. Young, of Butler, Pa., deacon; and

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, of St. Vitus church, this city, and director of the Lawrence County Union of Sodalitys, was sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Jacob Shinar, sodalitys news editor, led in the recitation of the Act of Consecration and the prayer for peace. Rev. Fr. Riley of Pitt-South, and Rev. Fr. Edmund F. Rowan, director of Pitt-North, were master of ceremonies. Father Rowan, a former pastor of Wampum, was also in charge of the program of the day.

In addition to the union officers and representatives taking part in the ceremonies, a large number of local sodalists attended the ceremonies.

Thanks for the good-neighbor policy, Mr. Smith. You're helping to speed telephone service for the other people on your line, for their son in the service, for yourself, and for everyone.

Because of the continued need of our Armed Forces for electronic and communications equipment for war, no more than a trickle of the central-office telephone equipment we need is coming through. That's as it should be, of course; but it means that every minute counts—every second, really—on local and long distance calls. Shorter conversations mean better telephone service for everybody. Sergt. Wm. V. Johns Is Liberated From German War Camp

Wife Receives Gratifying News Of Freeing Of Her Husband On Mother's Day

Mother's Day, 1945, will always be remembered by Mrs. William V. Johns of Glenmore boulevard, for the day brought her welcome news. She was notified by the American Red Cross that her husband, Sergt. William V. Johns had been liberated from a German prison camp.

Back in July, 1944, Sergt. Johns, a gunner on a bomber, was taken prisoner by the Germans after his plane had been forced down by flak. Since then, Mrs. Johns has heard only about twice from him and that indirectly.

Mrs. Johns and their three-year-old son Tommy are hoping the sergeant gets home soon for on June 1 there is a double anniversary in the Johns home, the wedding anniversary and Mrs. Johns' birthday.

Sergt. Johns was a foreman with the Shenango Pottery Company before he entered service.

Local Gideons And Auxiliary Meet

Members of the New Castle chapter of Gideons and ladies auxiliary gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. D. 1. Ellwood City, over the week-end.

The devotional period was led by Miss Ruth Bender, with Robert Chappell in charge.

Plans have been made to place lightweight Bibles in the army hospitals. Louis Mooney and Paul McGaffie gave reports on the recent Gideon state convention held in Philadelphia.

At the auxiliary session a report of the state auxiliary meeting was given by Mrs. Jean Mooney.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Robert Chappell, president; Mrs. A. H. Robb, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Bender, second vice-president; Mrs. B. French Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Miss Ruth Bender, chaplain.

Two hundred and eighty-nine testaments have been given to nurses, WAVES, WACS and SPARS.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ferness and the meeting closed with the Gideon circle and benediction.

Next meeting will be held on June 1, at the home of Mrs. B. F. Johnson of Wallace avenue.

Clifford Jackson Kaufman, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kaufman of Fomelle, was killed in action in the Pacific theater and was buried at sea, a message just received by the parents states. The date and scene of the action has not been specified.

He was inducted into service on June 8, 1942, and took his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. He has been in action in almost every theater during the 20 months he has been at sea.

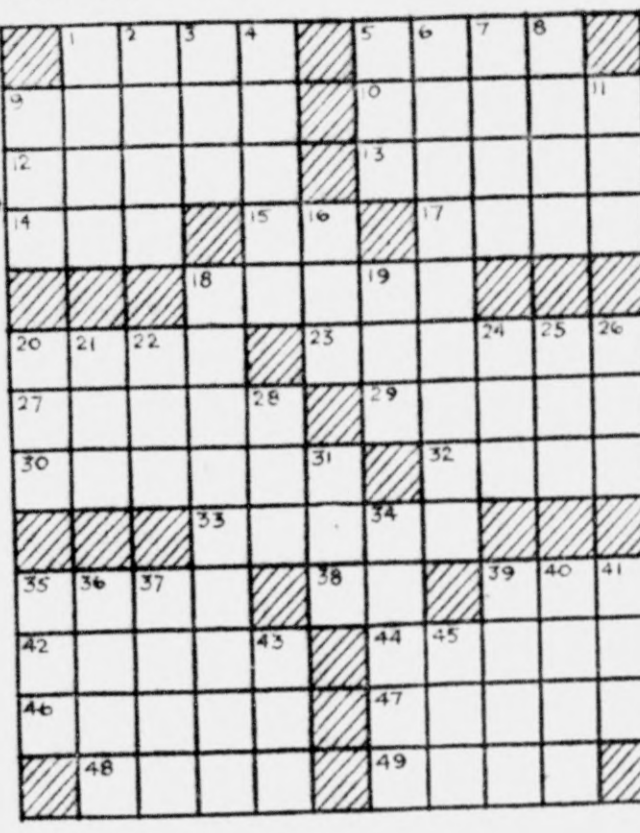

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Fred, of Fomelle, with whom he was associated in the trucking business before entry into service; a brother, Pte. William Kaufman, stationed in Germany, and a sister, Mrs. Leroy Connelly, of Beaver Falls.

One week's supply of tin cans from 185 penny lunchrooms operated by the Chicago Board of Education provided enough material for two B-29 bombers, John Howatt, board business manager, said the 12,000 gallon cans were turned over to the War Production Board.

Bulk of the world's supply of molybdenum, one of the most important of alloys, is produced at Climax, Colo. It was widely used for the first time during World War I.

Local Plant Made Parts For Water Buffalo

Some of the military secrets can be told now and credit bestowed where it is due. For example the manufacture of the "Water Buffalo" that sturdy amphibious tank which landed troops from Guadalcanal to Okinawa and from North Africa to the Rhine. You saw pictures of them; you marveled at their sturdiness and war life appearance. But what you might not have known is that the final drivshafts for 2800 of them were made by Webster Products Inc. here in New Castle.

The "Water Buffalo" is assembled by the Food Machinery Corporation and today the company celebrates the completion of its 10,000th amphibious tank. The celebration is to give credit to all the companies having a part in the manufacture and Webster Products Inc. was one of the important ones.
